

Here are Some Ways Title I Provides Support for Your Child:

- Funding for after school programs
- Parent involvement opportunities
- Extended time for reading and math instruction
- Staff development trainings for your child's teacher
- Materials, resources and technology

Ways Parents Can Support Our Programs and be informed about Title I:

- Ask teachers, principals and Title I staff about the program
- Talk to your child's teacher regarding their progress in the program (all students are assessed three times per year in reading and math)
- Attend annual Title I Parent Night and other events at your child's school
- Volunteer to be part of the annual Title I plan review process at your school

Your Rights as a Parent

If you have a question or concern about your school's Title I program or your child's participation in the program, please contact your child's teacher or the school principal (see contact information on back). You have the right to request certain information on the professional qualifications of your student's classroom teachers and paraprofessionals providing services to your child.

If your concern can't be remedied or you have further questions, please contact:

Sue Scott, Director, Title I Programs
503-431-4139 or email: sscott@ttsd.k12.or.us

Here are Some Ways Title I Provides Support for Your Child:

- Funding for after school programs
- Parent involvement opportunities
- Extended time for reading and math instruction
- Staff development trainings for your child's teacher
- Materials, resources and technology

Ways Parents Can Support Our Programs and be informed about Title I:

- Ask teachers, principals and Title I staff about the program
- Talk to your child's teacher regarding their progress in the program (all students are assessed three times per year in reading and math)
- Attend annual Title I Parent Night and other events at your child's school
- Volunteer to be part of the annual Title I plan review process at your school

Your Rights as a Parent

If you have a question or concern about your school's Title I program or your child's participation in the program, please contact your child's teacher or the school principal (see contact information on back). You have the right to request certain information on the professional qualifications of your student's classroom teachers and paraprofessionals providing services to your child.

If your concern can't be remedied or you have further questions, please contact:

Sue Scott, Director, Title I Programs
503-431-4139 or email: sscott@ttsd.k12.or.us

Tigard-Tualatin School District Title I Programs

Bridgeport Elementary
Jordan Mills, Principal
503-431-4208

Metzger Elementary School
Jessica Swindle, Principal
503-431-4608

C. F. Tigard Elementary School
Ryan Blasquez, Principal
503-431-4408

Templeton Elementary School
Carrie Ferguson, Principal
503-431-4858

Deer Creek Elementary School
Jarvis Gomes, Principal
503-431-4458

Tualatin Elementary School
Jamie Kingery, Principal
503-431-4808

Durham Elementary School
Cleann Brewer, Principal
503-431-4508

Title I is a federally funded program in 7 Tigard-Tualatin Schools serving over 3500 students. The funds are intended to assist students in need of extra assistance to achieve the high state academic standards.

Tigard-Tualatin School District Title I Programs

Bridgeport Elementary
Jordan Mills, Principal
503-431-4208

Metzger Elementary School
Jessica Swindle, Principal
503-431-4608

C. F. Tigard Elementary School
Ryan Blasquez, Principal
503-431-4408

Templeton Elementary School
Carrie Ferguson, Principal
503-431-4858

Deer Creek Elementary School
Jarvis Gomes, Principal
503-431-4458

Tualatin Elementary School
Jamie Kingery, Principal
503-431-4808

Durham Elementary School
Cleann Brewer, Principal
503-431-4508

Title I is a federally funded program in 7 Tigard-Tualatin Schools serving over 3500 students. The funds are intended to assist students in need of extra assistance to achieve the high state academic standards.