Orig. Code(s): AF

Commitment to Accomplishment

The Board expects that the staff will make every effort to pursue the district's philosophy regarding continuous improvement goals. To that end, the staff will make clear statements of expectations to students and parents. Likewise, the staff will document progress on goals. The district is committed to a data driven decision making model, where all relevant data is considered prior to making a decision.

The superintendent will make regular reports to the Board and the community on the accomplishments of staff and students in the pursuit of these goals.
